Special Meeting
Proposed Standing Rules

1. The order of business shall be:
    a. Chairman's Update
    b. Credential Report
    c. Adoption of Proposed Standing Rules
    d. Nominations and Election of Secretary
    e. Adjourn
2. No further business shall be permitted. (CRC Bylaws Article VII Section E).
3. As the meeting is an electronic meeting, proxies are forbidden. (CRC Bylaws Article VII Section G). Except for staff and volunteers, nonmembers shall not be permitted in the zoom room. The meeting may be shown on the CO GOP YouTube Channel.
4. Members shall be credentialed with a government issued photo identification before being allowed in the main meeting room, and members names shall be changed to indicate that they have been credentialed.
5. Members shall seek recognition with the "Raise Hand" feature on Zoom. Members making an interrupting motion, such as Point of Order, shall send a message to the Chair with the "Zoom Chat" feature. The Chair shall report points of order or requests to the assembly and shall only recognize members if the point of order is well taken.
6. Candidates for office shall be nominated from the floor by a member. A nominator shall state their name and/or position and the name of the person they are nominating and will not be permitted any further time for speaking. Nominations shall not be seconded. Each candidate shall be allowed five minutes to speak. Members may self-nominate.
7. Voting for Vacancy Officer Elections shall be by secret ballot through the "Zoom polling" function. If a member does not receive a ballot, that member may reveal their vote to a meeting facilitator and have that vote added to the total. If more votes are cast than members credentialed, the vote shall be retaken. The Chairman may determine the method of voting for other motions.
8. Each candidate may select an Election Watcher to observe the credentialing process. Candidates should provide the names of their watcher to the Chairman before the start of the meeting.
9. The Chairman shall make such other reasonable rules as may be necessary for the operation of the meeting.
10. At the adjournment of this meeting, these rules shall cease being in force and the rules found in Appendix A of the CRC Bylaws shall be in effect at the start of the next meeting until such future body wishes to adopt other rules.
